

Telluride Jazz Celebration Welcomes Dan Hicks & The Hot Licks

July 27, 2010 | Telluride, Colo., – Dan Hicks, in all his fashion, attitude and swagger glory, will make his way to the 34th Annual Telluride Jazz Celebration August 6-8. Accompanied by The Hot Licks, his festival performance is sure to be a crowd pleaser – the kind of good time where the music will get under the skin and where the lyrics will keep entertaining long after the musicians leave the stage.

- Dan Hicks & The Hot Licks take to the Telluride Jazz Celebration stage on Friday, August 6 at 4 p.m.
- Mr. Hicks himself refers to his eclectic mix of music as “folk jazz” – featuring a beat or two from such genres as outlaw swing, folk, country, Django, blues and rock.
- As evidenced in his latest release, Tangled Tales, Mr. Hicks demonstrates why his lyrics have been touted as some of the sharpest-tongued, driest-witted and subtly hilarious bits of irreverence ever committed to rhyme.
